Tulips

Within the same day,
I bought 2 different bouquets

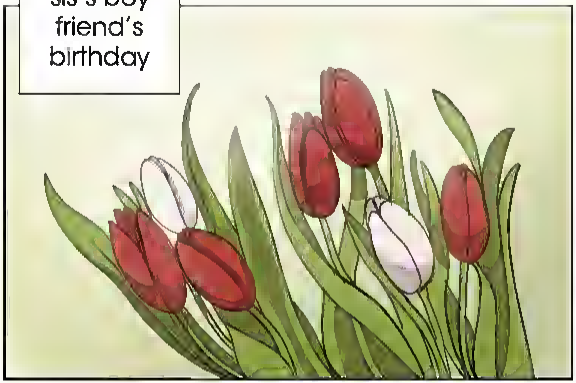
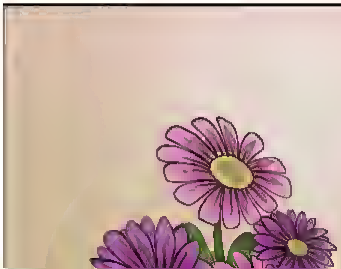
sis's boy friend's birthday





And flowers for my friend, who informed me his father was slowly passing away in the hospital

This morning,
I got a text from my friend

THUMP

THUMP

"Thank you for waking up." I told my mom.

We nearly lost my mom during my senior year due to a bad car accident.
However, we were fortunate our nightmare had a happy ending, my mom's safe return.

My friend didn't share such luck.

Go hug someone you care for right now.
They might not be around tomorrow.
